IHS Soccer Skills Camp

Our Winter Soccer Skills Camp offers kindergarten through 6th grade students the perfect opportunity to get out of the house, burn some energy, and build their love for the game. Hosted by our high school coaching staff and players, this camp provides a positive, supportive environment where young athletes can learn from experienced coaches and enthusiastic role models. Campers will work on dribbling, passing, shooting, ball control, and footwork through age-appropriate drills and engaging games. What to Expect: Fundamentals taught through fun, fast-paced activities Encouraging instruction from high school coaches and players Small-sided games to build confidence and teamwork A great way to stay active during the holiday break Join us for a high-energy camp that helps young players grow their skills, make new friends, and enjoy the game during the winter break!
